

PRESIDENT HOOVER PAYS TRIBUTE TO ABRAHAM LINCOLN

SPEAKS OVER RADIO FROM WHITE HOUSE

Calls For War Time Unity; Predicts Triumph

Washington, Feb. 12.—(AP)—Naming Abraham Lincoln as the greatest American since Washington—a preserver of the nation's solidarity in its period of greatest stress—President Hoover tonight led in a national tribute to the great Civil War president.

He spoke from the Lincoln study in the white house, the room in which Lincoln fought his part of the north-south conflict. Contrasting it with the present "fight upon a hundred fronts," against less tangible economic forces, the president called for war time unity and predicted another national triumph.

Leaders appear

While the chief executive was broadcasting his address to the Lincoln Day dinner of the National Republican club in New York, other administration leaders appeared in person before a score of similar gatherings throughout the country.

Earlier, words in praise of Lincoln had rung through both the senate and the house. Ceremonies were held, also, at the huge marble pillared monument to his memory here.

Tribute to the ideals of the Republican party was paid by Mr. Hoover as part of his eulogy of Lincoln. He said its "traditions and tenets are precious to all those who desire to live."

The nation at present, the president said, is in a period of stress which history will record as one of the most difficult since Lincoln's time. In the light against forces invisible "yet potent in their powers of destruction," he said, there is required the unity of strength and the "sense of devotion as in war."

President's address, in full, follows:

"I deeply regret that public duties make it impossible for me to be present with you at your Lincoln Day dinner this evening. It is, however, a (Continued on Page Five)

POPE PIUS WANTS PEACE RESTORED TO THE WORLD

Speaks Before Thousands on Tenth Anniversary of His Coronation

Vatican City, Feb. 12.—(AP)—Pope Pius seized upon the tenth anniversary of his coronation today to further the cause of peace.

Speaking before tens of thousands in St. Peter's the pontiff said he hoped his words would be "comfort and consolation" and that all would be with him in prayers that "the supreme Lord of all things earthly should cause peace to return to the earth."

It was the second time within a week the pontiff had referred to a turbulence in the world. On Monday he sent a message to preachers of the Catholic church urging them to convey a Lenten message of optimism in crisis of unemployment, struggle and suffering.

Today Pius said the present was a time of "an anguished search for peace, and for means to ensure it."

The scene was an impressive one. The pope was carried in solemn procession from his apartments by 16 red-clad attendants and 32 arrived at St. Peter's escorted by Swiss guards, noble guards, prelates and cardinals in purple, thousands cheered and shouted "Viva Il Papa."

At the end of the ceremony, Pius gave his benediction and was borne back through the shouting audience.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE IN FRANCE HAS ADVANCED STEP

Electoral Reform Bill is Adopted by Chamber of Deputies

Paris, Feb. 12.—(AP)—The thirty-year battle for woman suffrage in France advanced a step today when the majority in the chamber of deputies adopted the sweeping electoral reform bill which enfranchises women and gives them the right to serve in the chamber on the same basis as men.

The measure must still come before the senate which in past years has always defeated similar efforts. This time the suffrage leaders plan to put up a strong fight in the upper house.

The woman suffrage section of the bill was tacked on as a last-minute amendment to the hilly-contested measure which would put an end to the second ballot in elections to the chamber, used now when the leading candidate on the first ballot fails to get a clear majority. Under the new measure a plurality would elect.

"We're extremely happy over today's vote," said Marie Verone, one of the leading women lawyers of Paris. "It is significant because the senate, which has refused since 1926 even to discuss the question of enfranchising women, now will have to take action. What the result will be in the senate we don't know but we feel we have a chance."

So angry were the Socialists and the Radical-Socialists at the suppression of the second ballot that 200 of them walked out of the chamber, following Edouard Herriot, the former premier.

One of them said later that they made that dramatic move so that the country would know they had no part in the adoption of the bill.

The women's suffrage movement began in France about 1900, and Susan B. Anthony was a leader of the campaign.

SUPPORTERS OF F. D. ROOSEVELT START BATTLE

Hoover And Johnson Friends Out Of N. D. Primary

Washington, Feb. 12.—(AP)—The Democratic supporters of Franklin D. Roosevelt took up militantly today the challenge of the Stop-Roosevelt brigade, which the Republican managers for Herbert Hoover and the insurgent friends of Hiram Johnson decided alike to stand aside from a primary contest in early-voting North Dakota.

These three developments, among the many produced by a day of far-flung political action, cast significant shadows into the presidential year 1932.

Start Rally.

The rally here of the Roosevelt forces, led by Homer Cummings of Connecticut and eleven Democratic senators, signaled the beginning of an aggressive nation-wide push against the wall of opposition which several party leaders are seeking to reach between the New York governor and the nomination.

The Hoover decision not to enter the North Dakota primary of March 15 indicated a conviction among his managers that his renomination is assured without the disagreeable necessity of battling for disputed areas, particularly the states where the party is largely in the hands of the insurgents.

Senator Johnson's refusal to go into North Dakota, on the other hand, greatly lessened the likelihood that he will run at all against Hoover. He left the door open to later action in other states, but his friends no longer had much hope of his candidacy.

Various other developments during the day partly clarified and partly clouded the situation in both parties.

In Harrisburg a Roosevelt-for-President league was organized by Democratic leaders of thirty Pennsylvania counties.

The Republican state committees of Kentucky and Tennessee endorsed President Hoover for reelection. These are among the states counted by the Hoover leaders as safe without a delegate contest.

"With only twenty-four hours left for filling in North Dakota, the only Republican entrants were former Senator Joseph I. France of Maryland, Representative Louis T. McCaffrey of Pennsylvania and Jacob S. Coxey of Ohio.

ANDREW MELLON ENDS HIS LONG CABINET CAREER

Leaves Cares of Office to His Youthful Successor, Ogden Mills

Washington, Feb. 12.—(AP)—White-haired Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the treasury under President Harding, Coolidge and Hoover, today ended his cabinet career.

Leaving the cares of his office to a more youthful successor—Ogden L. Mills—the retiring Mellon gave up the helm of the nation's fiscal affairs to become ambassador to Great Britain.

In a low but firm voice Mellon answered "I do" to the oath of alliance to his diplomatic post and then as he leaned over to sign it, said: "That isn't a marriage ceremony. It's a divorce."

A simple ceremony marked Mellon's induction into his new office and Mills' oath to succeed him in the treasury. Arthur A. Ballantine was sworn at the same time to succeed Mills as undersecretary.

Mellon worked up to the last minute at his desk. To a large crowd of government officials waiting in his outer office, the ceremony he bade a cheery "good afternoon."

In the group were Charles G. Dawes, whose place Mellon will take at the Court of St. James.

Lawrence Richey, secretary to President Hoover, represented the president. Eugene Meyer, governor of the Federal Reserve Board, was present.

Earlier in the day Mellon sent his formal resignation to the president.

As Mr. Mellon stepped out to take care of the nation's diplomatic work at London two Harvard classmates who received their A. B. degree in 1904, and law degrees in 1907, took over direction of the treasury.

Mills and Ballantine went through Harvard in the same class, but after graduating Mills turned to politics and finance; while Ballantine went into tax law and later joined the internal revenue bureau.

Mills went to congress and then became undersecretary while Ballantine, who had gone into private law practice, returned to the treasury a year ago as assistant secretary.

PETER A. WALLER IS OUT OF RACE

Kewanee, Ill., Feb. 12.—(AP)—Peter A. Waller, Kewanee manufacturer advised friends this afternoon that he would not allow his name to be presented to the Chicago state election for endorsement as United States senator or any other office.

Mr. Waller, long prominent in Democratic circles and candidate for Lieut.-Gov. four years ago, had been mentioned by his friends as an available candidate for senator, although he had not committed himself.

Mr. Waller added that business demanded his entire attention and that he would not get into the race, except "as delegate to the national convention."

Abraham Lincoln Declared To Be As Popular Subject For Sculpture As Madonna

Fireman Carries Oysters to Fire, Holds Up Supper

Winnetka, Minn., Feb. 12.—(AP)—When Fireman Harry Solem took a bucket to a fire his companions who stayed behind began to worry.

Not that the bucket wasn't a good thing to take to a fire, but its contents caused concern. The firemen knew the fire was miles away and that almost anything might happen before Solem returned. The suspense was terrific.

But they all breathed signs of relief when the fire engine returned over 15 miles of bumpy roads, with Solem hanging on with the bucket and its contents—oysters for the department's annual supper.

Solem had been mindlessly forgotten to put the bucket down when he swung aboard the departing engine.

THIRD DEGREE METHODS USED SUSPECT SAYS

Mrs. Arnold Kegel And Youth Claim Were "Framed"

Chicago, Feb. 12.—(AP)—A cry of "frameup and protests against third degree brutality" came today from Mrs. Arnold Kegel and Gerald Lee, indicted for the attempted murder of the woman's maid by poison.

Lee, set free under bond, charged he was tortured by state's attorneys' men until he signed admissions.

Mrs. Kegel, still sought on warrants alleging she dropped a lethal powder in Mrs. Mary Ryan's lemon soda to prevent her appearing at the divorce trial of Dr. Arnold Kegel, was represented as ill in a private sanitarium because of the charges.

Wants Immediate Trial.

Leo A. O'Reilly, attorney for the wife of the former city health commissioner, said he would demand immediate trial for her and added:

"This is a frameup. Mrs. Kegel has not seen Mrs. Ryan or communicated with her since Mrs. Kegel and Dr. Kegel separated."

From State's Attorney, John A. Swanson came word that he would insist upon thorough investigation of the retraction of Lee's admissions and his accusation of third degree methods. But Swanson's assistant, Charles Lounsbury, said Lee could have repudiated his signed statement when he went before the grand jury yesterday and gave testimony that resulted in his indictment with Mrs. Kegel.

Signs Waiver.

"Instead," said Lounsbury, "he signed an immunity waiver then went before the grand jury and testified. When his original statement was signed there were two disinterested witnesses, no force was used; Lee was a willing witness, telling us he wanted the truth to be known."

Lee, the grocery boy who called at the Kegel home, had stated that he saw Mrs. Kegel pour "white powder" into Ryan's drink and heard her say she must "get rid of Mary" before the divorce suit reached trial.

Mrs. Ryan, seriously ill supposedly of poison, related today some of the testimony she was expected to give at the Kegel divorce trial.

"Several times," she said, "I saw Mrs. Kegel drop a few drops of something in Dr. Kegel's drink and he would get drowsy and soon go to bed."

Asked her what the drops were, she said it was a tonic. One day I felt pretty low so I decided I would try some. After I took a few I felt very drowsy and had to go to bed. I became alarmed and took the bottle to a toxicologist. He told me the stuff was a sleeping potion and the bottle contained enough of the fluid to kill several persons."

CONDEMNED MAN IS TAKEN TO PRISON

Indianapolis, Feb. 12.—(AP)—Charles Vernon Witt, 34, of Indianapolis, convicted of slaying Lafayette A. Jackson, Indianapolis chain grocery store owner, was taken to the state prison today. He is under sentence to be electrocuted August 10.

Witt is alleged to have been an accomplice of Louis E. Hamilton of Iowa, Kan., in an attempt to hold up Jackson's office here. Jackson was killed during the robbery attempt. Hamilton is awaiting trial this spring.

Witt's attorneys have filed notice that an appeal from his conviction will be carried to the supreme court.

RACKETEERS WERE HELPED BY COURT INJUNCTION, CLAIM

Union Official Protests Nomination of Judge Wilkinson

Washington, Feb. 12.—(AP)—Organized labor protested today to a senate nomination of Judge James H. Wilkinson, of Chicago, to the circuit court that his injunctions had helped racketeers obtain control of labor organizations.

Donald R. Richberg, opposing Wilkinson's confirmation on behalf of the Railroad Labor Executives' association and the American Federation of Labor, said the nominee's labor decisions detracted from the sentence he imposed upon Al Capone.

"When such a judge," he said, "sends a few racketeers to prison it seems to me he is not entitled to the respect of the public."

Richberg said "hoodlums, bootleggers and racketeers" had proved "a great menace by squeezing into Chicago labor organizations."

By destroying decent labor unions with injunctions, he said, they "nourish the racketeers" because only those "that deal in methods of lawless violence can survive."

Wilkinson was charged by Richberg with "an intolerable use of the injunctive power" in series of cases against the musicians union of Chicago in 1928.

The orders, he said, required men who had no contracts to work unless given permission by their employers to quit.

Will Start Business On Long Awaited Upward Trend

Washington, Feb. 12.—(AP)—Backed by an administration promise that it would start business in the long awaited upward trend, the emergency credit expansion bill today received the approval of senate and house banking committees.

Arrangements were made to bring it up for debate in both branches early next week, with swift passage in prospect. It has the support of leaders of both parties. The house will take up the bill on Monday and the senate will begin consideration on the floor Tuesday.

Secretary Mills of the treasury told the house banking committee the bill theoretically "will release $100,000,000 of credit" and "start the upward movement we are all looking for."

The provision to release about $750,000,000 of "freed gold" for new currency also developed as a possible protective measure to strengthen the federal reserve system against threatened withdrawal of about $600,000,000 in gold "ear marked" for foreign countries, principally France.

Mr. Mills insisted, however, before the house banking committee that "we have sufficient gold to meet all demands that can be made."

In opening the reserve system to re-discounting of new paper not now eligible, the senate banking committee decided to limit this one year privilege to banks with a capitalization of $500,000 or less.

Senator Glass (D., Va.) sponsor of the legislation, explained this was done to make the measure the benefactor of the smaller institutions.

The bill contemplates also permanent revision of the law to permit member banks to obtain the aid of the federal reserve system after they have exhausted all eligible paper for rediscount. To obtain assistance five banks must sign a promissory note secured by the now ineligible but "sound" securities.

DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE BEARS FRUIT

Delegations From France and Italy Resume Negotiations

By Louis P. Lochner.
Associated Press Staff Correspondent.

Geneva, Switzerland, Feb. 12.—(AP)—The world disarmament conference bore its first fruit today with the resumption of direct negotiations between the French and Italian delegations to settle their naval differences.

It was firmly believed that conference now being held would lead to an extension of the London naval treaty of 1930 and provide a basis for further disarmament of all powers on the seas.

French minister of war Andre Tardieu and Foreign Minister Dino Grandi of Italy have already met to discuss the subject and their conversations are being followed up by the French and Italian naval experts, Rene Massigli and Augusto Rosso.

The negotiations are being conducted on the basis of the abortive agreement among Italy, France and Great Britain on March 1, 1930. The principal points to be worked out are the replacement of the London naval treaty, which is becoming obsolete—a point which wrecked the 1930 treaty.

The French, who have a proportionately large number of ships that will soon become over age, have maintained their right to replace them and the Italians, whose navy is relatively more modern, have contested this stand.

Today was small nations day at the conference board, with foreign ministers of Spain, Czechoslovakia, and Denmark outlining their country's suggestions for limitation and reduction.

PAVING BRICK BUSINESS GOOD

Chicago, Feb. 12.—(AP)—Members of the National Paving Brick Association said today their business is good and promises to be better.

Extensive road building operations in many states to increase employment was given as the reason for improvement in the business. Speakers estimated that at least 200,000,000 paving bricks will be used during 1932.

C. W. Renkert of Canton, O., was elected president of the association. W. H. Moseley of Springfield, Ill., vice president; S. Nirdlinger of Galesburg, Ill., treasurer, and George F. Schlesinger, former director of the Iowa highway department was named chief engineer with offices in Washington, D. C.

OVER-ASSESSED

Washington, Feb. 12.—(AP)—A credit of $947,308 to the United States Steel corporation, New York, for over-assessment of income tax in 1922 was announced today by the internal revenue bureau.

A tax credit is allowed when it is found the taxpayer has paid too much tax in one year and the amount is permitted to apply on taxes due in another year.

The credit was due to revision of reported valuations of the opening and closing inventories in the amount of $524,555.

Struck in Eye by Sugar Cube, Gets $10,000 Damages

Los Angeles, Feb. 12.—(AP)—For the loss of an eye, allegedly because it was struck by a sugar cube tossed at a Lion's club luncheon in 1929, William J. McWhinnie has been awarded $10,000.

Protestations of attorneys that, at the height of the fun, McWhinnie poured a glass of water into the coat pocket of Eliot Amar, and the sugar cubes so filled the air that no one could be certain just who hit McWhinnie, did not shake the superior court jury's belief that McWhinnie was entitled to damages from Amar.

INTERNATIONAL RUM RING HAS BEEN REVEALED

104 Indictments Are Returned By Jury In New Orleans

New Orleans, Feb. 12.—(AP)—An international rum ring which federal prohibition agents say bore signs of Al Capone's guiding hand was revealed here today in 104 indictments made by a grand jury in United States district court.

The indictments, charging conspiracy to violate the tariff act and violation of the prohibition law, were based on evidence gathered by agents after months of work.

The agents—a small army of them—were engaged in the investigation claim they have proof that Capone's Chicago gang organized a gigantic syndicate two years ago for the purpose of bringing Canadian liquor into the United States through the New Orleans area. It began operations after Canadian authorities banned the shipping of liquor across the international boundary line.

Smuggle Liquor.

Thousands of gallons of liquor, the agent said, have been smuggled over the Gulf coast mark. In the last two years, under the plan, they said, certain distilleries shipped the liquor to Belize, British Honduras. There it was picked up by "mother ships" of the syndicate and reshipped to the Gulf coast. Small craft would meet the ships beyond the 12-mile limit and bring the liquor either into Mississippi streams or into Louisiana bayous, then the cargoes were distributed to interior cities of the United States by trucks or box cars.

Among the principals named in the indictment were four distilleries in Vancouver, B. C. They are the Burrard Stock and Bond Company, the National Supply Company, the Consolidated Exporters' Corporation, Ltd., and the United Distillers, Ltd.

Ninety-seven men, residents of Canada, British Honduras, Chicago, Spokane, New York, New Orleans and towns in Mississippi and Louisiana, were others indicted. Eighteen of them were residents of Hancock county, Miss., including Lander H. Necaise, county supervisor and ex-sheriff.

In the Chicago group, four of them were alleged by the agents to be members of the Capone gang. They are Isidore Blumenfeld, alias Harry Blum; Nathan Haimowitz, alias Al Hami; Nathan Goldberg, alias Nat; and Cecil C. Squires. The same four came into the news last spring when they were arrested by federal agents as they began to uncover the ring's activities.

ATTORNEY PETITIONS FOR REINSTATEMENT

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 12.—(AP)—John L. Metzger of Chicago, who was kidnapped and tarred in Stanton on Lincoln's birthday 14 years ago, petitioned the supreme court today to reinstate him as an attorney. Information to disbar him was filed years ago tomorrow and he was disbarred later.

In his petition, Metzger quotes various court decisions, the constitution, the Bible and Martin Luther. He declared a telegram was sent by the mayor of Stanton saying the "tarring heartily approved by Chicago bench and bar."

The tarring was the outgrowth of agitation during the war.

INCREASES OUTPUT

Washington, Feb. 12.—(AP)—Shoe factories increased their output in 1931 4 per cent over that of 1930.

The commerce department reported today that the total output of boots and shoes, other than rubber, during 1931 was 316,239,809 pairs as compared with 304,169,748 pairs in 1930.

Shoe production in the United States rose steadily from 1924 to 1929 when 361,402,000 pairs were manufactured but during 1930 production fell off sharply.

A Lincoln Biography

Carl Sandburg's short biography is well written and covers the life of the nation hero in a brief style.
However, a person reading this biography and getting from it his first acquaintance with Lincoln, would not learn the manner of his death. The reader would not discover that Lincoln was himself a martyr to the cause which Sandburg very clearly defines as his life work, the preservation of the Union. However, from this short biography the reader does gain some insight into the character of Lincoln. The writing shows the use which the author has made of the wealth of new knowledge of Lincoln which has come to light in recent years. Lincoln was a political tool in his progress from New Salem to the presidency. He did not examine too closely the machinery by which he was elevated.

But once in the White House he became the Master, and the work he did during those four years of conflict stands as his chief monument. Lincoln was interested in what Pinchot calls his "platform of human rights," and sought only to do the best for all the people. When Pinchot says Lincoln would fail to interest party leaders today, he is mistaken.
They would do with him now what they did then, carry him along as a "dark horse," trusting to his failure as a politician to permit them to carry out their own plans.

But if Lincoln were here today and those who were backing him would face the same crisis that arose then, if the safety of the nation were at stake, Lincoln would become the master, and the petty politicians would have to take a back seat. It is in times of crisis that really great men show their greatness and truly great men show their littleness.

Philippine Independence

There is before Congress what is known as the Hawes-Cutting bill which would provide for the gradual granting of independence to the Philippine Islands. A few days ago in testifying before a Senate Committee on the bill, Edward N. Hurley, Secretary of War, grew weary in his denunciation of the whole scheme and referred to it as "cowardly."

Senator Harry B. Hawes of Missouri is one of the sponsors of the bill. Last summer he journeyed to the Philippines to find out whether the people really wanted independence, and of course he discovered what he wanted to know. He did not hesitate in telling the island legislature that his inspection had convinced him that the people wanted independence and wanted it very much which was of course what the legislature wanted to hear.

He declared that the American people want to do what is right by the islands, which is true. The people love their own liberties and would not want to deprive others of what they enjoy. But to consider Philippine independence at this time is exactly what Secretary Hurley called it—cowardly.

The islands occupy a strategic position and the island people do not realize the importance of that position in Asia. Hawes told them they had a mission in Asiatic waters and flattered them by saying they could work it out better alone and independent. The fact is, the islands are too small to have much of a mission, but they are large enough to be of vital importance to other and greater powers.

Japan has possessions today only 60 miles north of the Philippines. She has steadily worked down the Asiatic coast and has her eye on the island chain which extends to Borneo. The Philippines are a part of that chain.
To release the islands now or in the near future, to begin that era of uncertainty and perhaps revolution which always prefaces the establishment of a new government, would indeed be cowardly.

If independence were granted, the United States would be morally bound to maintain a protectorate over the islands, or relinquish them to the dangers of invasion by the aggressive Japanese. To maintain a protectorate would violate our own Monroe doctrine, to which other parts of the world have as much right as we.
Outright ownership of the islands does not carry any inconsistency in policy.

THERAPY METHODS ARE BENEFIT TO PONTIAC INMATES

Word comes from the Illinois State Reformatory at Pontiac of a brand new venture in prison and reform work. When a man is sent from the free outside world into an institution he is suddenly separated from his friends and relatives, subjected to a monotonous diet, housed in a cell, dressed in a uniform and shorn of his personal privacy. Some men find the change too much for them and begin to show signs of mental disease. Many men have been driven insane by the experience.

There are also men whose crime was the result of mental disorder that developed before they came to prison.
They inevitably break the institutional rules, cause the officers all kinds of trouble and are only made worse by the ordinary disciplinary treatment.
What these men need is treatment as patients. They are mentally sick.
In December 1930 Pontiac Reformatory secured some meagre equipment for administering hydrotherapy and occupational therapy, such as is used in the state hospitals. Most of the equipment was made at Pontiac at no expense to the state. It was set up in the basement of the institution hospital and Dr. David P. Phillips, the psychiatrist at Pontiac, was put in charge. The total added expense of the project has been less than a hundred dollars.

88 Boys Treated
During 1931 there were eighty-eight boys treated in this department. Boys who defy all efforts of the disciplinary officer to punish and make them behave, are sent to Dr. Phillips for study and treatment. Every boy is different and is treated differently. But most of them eventually get hold of themselves and are able to return to their jobs and cause no more trouble.
Before 1931 boys whose minds broke were commonly transferred to the hospital for criminal insane at Chester, Ill., but during 1931 only one boy was sent there.

In reporting on the first year of this work Dr. Phillips stated:
"It has long been recognized that the lack of early treatment, together with the unwholesome influence of a prison environment and with long periods of isolation in cells, have resulted in the formation of many chronic cases of mental disease. The establishment of a ward for the treatment of nervous and mental patients in a Reformatory, makes possible the restoration and rehabilitation of certain cases which might otherwise become continued state charges. It permits the opportunity of thorough study, of scientific treatment, and of extensive research regarding the causative factors peculiar to those mental disorders arising in a prison environment."

WILL ROGERS
says:

To the Editor of The Journal-Courier
Washington, Feb. 12.—Appropriations were just flying every which way here when I visited Congress.
But I couldn't seem to get my hands on any of it. Heard Borah in the Senate make what the press boys all said was one of his best speeches.
Visited my old friend, Speaker Garner. Even all the Republicans say he is doing a great job with his handling of this Congress.

Had long chat with Mrs. Longworth, who still knows what all the shooting
is about.
Heard 'em approve Ogden Mills in the Senate as our new secretary of the treasury. Everybody is very high in their praise of his ability, and he went through without a murmur.

McKENDREE PRESIDENT

CLUB HAS GUEST DAY
Guest day of the Mound Woman's club was observed in the home of Mrs. John Clary, 518 North Church street, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Clary and Mrs. John Lazenby were hosesses to seventy guests for the entertainment and social hour which featured the Valentine theme.

Upon the conclusion of the business,
roll call was answered by each member introducing her guest. The program was then opened with a paper on "The Matron of Mt. Vernon" by Mrs. W. T. Richardson. A one act play, entitled "Her Forgetful Husband" was enacted by Mrs. Arthur Acom, Mrs. A. J. Stewart, Miss Bess
Hopper, Miss Gertrude Wilson, Mrs.
Lena Stewart and Mrs. Fred Carter.
A double trio from the Singing
Mothers club included Mesdames
Black, Parett, King, Woods, Husted and Chumley and sang a group of numbers. Mrs. E. D. Canatsey accompanied at the piano. A Valentine theme afforded entertainment for the members and guests.

Mrs. A. Wehl, county president was a special guest and talked to the members.
Tea was served during the social hour with Mrs. Lewis Perbix and Mrs.
Emma G. Smith presiding at the table.

It was decided to hold the next meeting with Mrs. Fred Carter on the Mercedosa road instead of Mrs.
Earl Woods.

Glen Peacock of Winchester spent several hours in Jacksonville yesterday.

RACE AND PEACE
PROBLEMS TO BE TOPIC ON CAMPUS

Four Y. M. C. A. speakers of unusual note will address classes at Illinois College on Monday of next week, presenting to students a number of topics relating to world race and peace problems. A group of instructors is co-operating with the local Y.
M. C. A. in bringing the speakers to Jacksonville.

The four speakers who will spend
Monday at Illinois College include George L. Collins, six-foot four-inch tall, pastor of the University of Wisconsin; Charles Corbett, who has just returned from Geneva, Switzerland; Thomas Q. Harrison, a member of the national council for the prevention of war; and E. B. Schultz, formerly a regional student representative of the national Y. M. C. A.

During the day they will address about five classes each, and will spend hours between classes in seminar conferences with interested students.

The speakers are members of the "Illinois Christian World Education Institutes," and represent one of two teams which is travelling through Illinois to speak at various colleges. The team which visits here has been the guest of Elmhurst, DeKalb, Mt. Morris and Blackburn colleges, and after leaving Jacksonville will visit Eureka, Bradley and Western Teachers.

To Post Class Schedules.
Schedules for their various class appearances and seminars will be posted today on the bulletin board in Tanner Library. Professor Oxtoby, Stratton and Miller and Miss Merrill, Mr. Linville and Miss Tomlinson have arranged for appearances of the speakers in their classes.

George Collins, Wisconsin student pastor, is a leader of the outstanding seminar groups according to advance notices. He will conduct several discussion hours, and will also speak on race problems in several history and social science classes.

Corbett, the League of Nations expert, will center his attention upon

TREES AND POLES
DAMAGED BY WIND
IN GREENE COUNTY

White Hall, Feb. 12.—A high wind visited White Hall early Thursday morning and again about noon that day, doing considerable damage to trees and small buildings. Several trees were blown down, a large apple tree at the home of Ora Brown on South Carr street was blown out by the roots. A tree fell on the residence of Stephen Lawson, and a number of sheds were turned over. Many limbs were blown from trees about town. Also some telephone poles were blown down.

Miss Louise Gutie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gutie of Patterson and Joseph Cox of Carrollton were married last Sunday, February 7.
They will reside in Carrollton where the groom is employed at the Standard Oil filling station.

Richard Bell will drive to Pontiac, Michigan, Saturday to bring his wife and little son after a three weeks

ASHLAND CATHOLIC
PARSONAGE DAMAGED

Ashland, Feb. 12.—Fire broke out yesterday and damaged the local Catholic church parsonage to the extent of between $200 and $300. The blaze started, it is believed, in an oil stove in the kitchen while the Rev. Father O'Brien was at the church, west of the parsonage. When discovered the fire had reached the ceiling of the room and had damaged
the entire kitchen.

A parsonage was destroyed on the location by fire about thirty-five years ago.

Concord, Grace Chapel and Mt. Zion Churches—Sunday school at 10 a. m. with Mr. Roy Nickel, superintendent. We have enjoyed the splendid attendance thus far this winter and trust that it shall continue to increase as the weather gets better. Let us all make a special effort to bring a new member next Sunday. We begin on time and close on time so you better be on time.

Regular evening service at 7:30 o'clock. This service always begins with a rousing, soul-stirring song service led by the pastor and assisted by the church choir. Come early and join with us. The church will also have a special number for us. A very important subject will be presented, the title of which is "Thinking With God About God." Very early in life, every person who is normal finds certain questions about God arising in his mind. Don't miss this.

At 9:30 the regular service will be conducted at the Mt. Zion M. E. church. Special music and sermon "The Hope of the Human Race." All make a special effort to be there.

The Lord willing, the weather permitting, preaching service at the Grace Chapel at 11:00 a. m. followed by the regular quarterly communion service. We want to urge all the members to be present. Then don't forget the Sunday school hour at 10:00 o'clock preceding the morning service. C. C. Keur.

Winchester Clinches Valley Conference

Rochester, Ill., Feb. 12.—(Special)—With a chance to sew up the title for the basketball title of the Illinois Valley conference, Winchester High came through with a strong attack to defeat a fighting Rockhouse side by a score of 18 to 16. The contest was closely played throughout and the gymnasium was packed to the doors by the followers of the two teams.

Winchester opened the game with a fish spin and bringing up two field tosses before the local five could bring an effective defense thrown up and then the teams began playing a slow, cautious game, waiting for opportunities to break through to the hoop. The visitors led at the end of the first period by 11 score of 4 to 0.

The local players began hitting the hoop in the second period, but could not stop the offensive machine of Winchester, the Scott county aggregation leading at the end of the first half by 11 to 11.

The third frame found the Rockhouse

Winchester found it impossible to get past the Roodhouse solid defense after picking up a point on a free throw began to stall whenever the Roodhouse held the ball. Winchester rushed the visitors to the last minute and were within two points of knocking out the score at the gun.

Carlton, Hart, and Perkins were outstanding for Winchester. Art Johnnasee and James Edwards played a bang-up game for Roodhouse.

Looking like a pack of champions, the Rockets whirled away at the St. Teresa defense in the opening period and jumped into a 6 to 4 lead. Nervous because of the tight game that the Decatur quintet gave them on the first period, the Rockets took to the Rockets worked it out during the first period and then began to collect on their well timed plays in the second quarter. With all five players taking part in the drive for points, Rount zipped into a 16 to 6 lead at the end of the second period. The Rockets led 16 to 6 at the end of the third period. Reserves began to stream onto the court in the final quarter, but the scoring went on at its rapid pace. St. Teresa's defense crumpled after the lightning charges of Rount's team spread it far apart, or rather, they all in one spot with the ball in another part of the court.

WRITERS WANT CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATION

Say They Were Driven From Pineville, Ky., Coal Fields

Washington, Feb. 12.—(AP)—A group of writers today demanded a congressional investigation of "a reign of terror" in the Kentucky coal fields, while citizens in that area urged that an inquiry be made, the first step should be in "New York and the nest of communists there."

Waldo Frank of New York, an author and chairman of the Writers' committee that was escorted from Bell and Harlan counties by a vigilance committee Wednesday night, charged he had been beaten about the head and driven from the state after trying to distribute food at Pineville, Ky.

Suffering, Poverty Striking miners in the area, which has been torn by labor strife for more than a year, live in a condition "virtually that of penury," Frank said, and with widespread suffering and poverty.

With other members of the writers' group, he appeared before Senators Cogan (D., Colo.), Cutting (R., N. M.), and Logan (D., Ky.), whom they asked to hear their story. They presented affidavits, describing their treatment in detail.

Frank, head bound in surgical dressing for a wound he asserted the Kentuckians gave him, charged they accused him and Allen Taux, who also was injured, of fighting with each other when they were being escorted from the state.

Senator Logan expressed the opinion there was "lots of suffering in New York, where babies also are without milk" and asked Frank if he thought "conditions in Kentucky are any worse than parts of Pennsylvania for example?"

The Kentucky senator also questioned Taux, asking "what can the United States do, you're a lawyer? You're talking about a matter that took place in a sovereign state. What right has the United States senate to go into a county of that state?"

Taux said there was "sufficient precedent" for the inquiry.

While the authors were presenting their plea to the senators today, Pineville citizens telegraphed members of congress urging the inquiry in New York. The message was sent by C. K. Calvert, chairman, and W. Frank Durham, secretary, of the local citizens' committee, to Senators Logan and Barkley (D., Ky.), Representative Finley (D., Ky.), and Representative Fish (R., N. Y.).

ROTARIANS HEAR LINCOLN ADDRESS BY MR. CONVERSE

Henry Converse, Springfield, a member of the board of directors of the Lincoln Centennial Association, addressed the noonday meeting of the Rotary Club Friday night when Lincoln and the vital part that he played in the saving of the Union.

Mr. Converse compared and contrasted the parts that Lincoln and Washington each played, and contrasted their personalities as well as their political roles. Lincoln was the truer representative of the people, Mr. Converse stated, and led the nation through the most difficult period in its history.

Scout Executive Robert Ellis and three Scouts were present in recognition of Scouting anniversary week. James Gordon, Morris Lair and Robert Roach were the Scouts present. Morris Lair told briefly of the activities of the Scouts who held the chief offices of the city for a two-hour period on Wednesday.

Other guests included Rev. T. Harley Marsh of this city.

HOSTESS TO CLUB

Mrs. J. E. Rawlings entertained in her home this week members of the Strawn's Crossing Woman's club who enjoyed several program numbers.

"The Radio's Responsibility as a Molder of Public Opinion" was the title of a paper given by Mrs. Hazel Cromwell, which in turn was followed by a group of popular radio songs by Mrs. J. E. Rawlings and family. Mrs. A. D. Arnold talked on a "Famous Tree Preserved." The radio theme was again introduced in the roll call, answered by "the who in the house." A demonstration of foods was given by Orville Busch. Mrs. J. W. Rawlings presided in the absence of Mrs. Marie Matson.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Hunter, Feb. 23.

BURNED TO DEATH Rockford, Ill., Feb. 12.—(AP)—Mrs. Ira Lee, 20, of nearby Byron died in a hospital here tonight of burns suffered today when she poured kerosene into the furnace of her home.

The tax books are now in the Collector's office and taxes extended stands as judgments against all parties mentioned therein.

Persons paying on personal property only should pay the tax promptly and avoid expense in collection.

The judgment reads as follows: "In case any person named in said books should neglect or refuse to pay their personal tax, you shall levy the same by distress and sale of goods and chattels of such persons."

Persons paying on real estate should bring their old tax receipt to save time and avoid mistakes. If paying through the bank, leave old receipt with your bank as soon as possible.

ADDS 2,500 BOOKS IN PAST 9 MONTHS

With the addition of 2,500 books to Tanner Memorial Library in the last nine months, Illinois College has more than doubled the number of books added to its library in any previous year. The unusually large number of additions to the library has been in part due to the grant of $10,000 for books by the Carnegie Corporation of New York, but several hundred books have also been purchased by the college, which normally adds more than a thousand titles to its library yearly.

The Carnegie grant additions have been pouring into the library at a rapid rate, and are being catalogued and placed in use as rapidly as possible. Before the fifteenth of May this year, several hundred more volumes will be added under this grant, which has been so helpful in the work of the administration to build the college library to better levels.

The most recent arrivals at Tanner Library are a large number of books which were ordered by the English department, and which include both standard and modern fiction, prose, poetry, drama, biography and critical works. A part of these books is now on display in the reading room of the library, about 150 of the best books figuring in the table display.

Shipping Held Up New York, Feb. 12.—(AP)—Shipping schedules along the Atlantic coast from New York to Boston were disrupted today by a dense fog.

Among the larger vessels held at their New York piers was the liner Berengaria, which pulled in its gangplank and prepared to sail with 1,158 passengers on a cruise to Bermuda at 9 o'clock last night.

NORTHWESTERN WINS Evanston, Ill., Feb. 12.—(AP)—Northwestern University today defeated Ohio State, 20 to 7, today.

The Northwestern grapplers won five matches, tied one and lost only two.

privilege and obligation for every American to join even for a few moments in a tribute to Abraham Lincoln.

"I gave a brief address from this room in the white house a year ago tonight. I stated then that it was the room in which a long line of presidents from Adams to Roosevelt have labored for the single purpose of the country's welfare. It was in this room from which I am speaking that Lincoln labored incessantly day and night for the preservation of the union. No one can enter here without being sensitive to those invisible influences of the men who have gone before.

"It was from this window that for five years Lincoln looked across the Potomac upon a flag under which embattled forces threatened our national unity. Unafraid, he told here with patience, with understanding, with steadfastness, with genius and courage that those wounds of a distraught nation might be healed and that that flag which waved over this house might be restored as the symbol of a united country. We rightly look back upon that time as the period of the greatest strain and stress which has threatened our country. But its wounds have long since healed and its memories are of the glorious valor and courage of our race, both north and south. They bring into bold relief memories of a great son of America who freed the country from slavery, preserved the solidarity of the union, revitalized the republic, inspired the people with a new purpose, and set for them a new destiny.

"While we are in the midst of the difficulties of this day we may well entertain the feeling that history will record this period as one of the most difficult in its strains and stresses upon the leaders of the republic that has been experienced since Lincoln's time. There are enduring principles and national ideals to be preserved against the pressures of today.

"The forces with which we are contending are far less tangible than those of Lincoln's time. They are invisible forces, yet potent in their powers of destruction. We are engaged in a fight upon a hundred fronts just as positive, just as definite and requiring just as greatly the moral courage, the organized action, the unity of strength and the sense of devotion in every community as in war.

"I am confident of the resources, the power and the courage of our people to triumph over any national difficulty. They are rallying to their responsibilities. They are thus doing more than serving their immediate needs. They are buttressing the very foundations of the government. They are defending the very principles of liberty and freedom. They are showing the patience and the steadfastness of Abraham Lincoln.

"Ours is a government of political parties. Lincoln was the leader of a party whose traditions and tenets are precious to all those who adhere to it. But we do not celebrate the birth of Lincoln as a political event. Instead we celebrate his birthday as the most significant for any American after Washington. In its celebration, we find renewed courage and strength to carry on our determination to maintain the principles which Washington forged from the fires of revolution and which Lincoln strengthened in the fires of civil strife.

"Washington deservedly shares with Lincoln the distinction of being nationally commemorated anniversary. Today, as throughout recent decades, his vision sets the guide-posts of American conscience and American ideal. This humble man of the wilderness, who labored over grub-hoeing and saw in his youth, never saw a city until he was twenty years old, never opened a grammar until he had attained his majority. Yet he became one of the few masters of the English language. There are no nobler utterances, no greater inspirations to people than his many appealing statements culminating in his Gettysburg speech. A race is fortunate that can contribute a voice calling to order and to conscience in the world which shall be heard above the froth and immaterial substance of everyday life. Fewer are they whose voices resound through the life of a people.

"Abraham Lincoln more than any other man gave expression to the heart and the character and the faith of our race. Washington was indeed the Father of Our Country. Lincoln was its greatest son.

GODFREY FUNERAL TO BE HELD SUNDAY

Mrs. Mary E. Godfrey passed away at 12:30 o'clock Friday morning at her home, 1235 South Clay avenue, after a four months' illness.

She was born August 1, 1860, at Jonesboro, Tenn., a daughter of Amos and Amanda Hale. She came with her parents to Illinois in 1874, the family moving to a farm northeast of Graceland. In 1878 the deceased was united in marriage with Henry C. Godfrey, who preceded her in death in 1891.

To this union were born three children, Charles M. Godfrey and Mildred Godfrey at home, and John R. Godfrey of South Jacksonville.

Mrs. Godfrey leaves the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Lydia A. Cook of Fayetteville, Ill.; Mrs. L. Jennings, McVey, Ill.; E. K. Hale, Bensenville, Ark.; E. D. Hale, Phoenix, Arizona; and J. M. Hale, Lanark, Minnesota. There also are six grandchildren.

Mrs. Godfrey was a member of Centenary M. E. church and was a faithful worker in that congregation. Her illness was of long duration and was borne with great patience. Mrs. Godfrey during the time of her suffering told her family and friends that she was prepared and willing to go.

Funeral services will be held at the Williamson Funeral Home at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Interment will be made in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Friends may view the remains at the funeral home.

CROWDER NOT SO WELL Havana, Feb. 12.—(AP)—General Enoch H. Crowder, former United States ambassador to Cuba who has been ill for several days, was not quite so well today as he was yesterday, his doctor said.

SECRETARY HYDE CAN EXAMINE ACCOUNTS

Chicago, Feb. 12.—(AP)—The right of the secretary of agriculture to examine trading accounts of grain brokers to determine whether the grain futures act was being violated was upheld today by Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson.

This act had been upheld by the supreme court but the traders, headed by Charles F. Francis Company, brought action to test the regulatory powers used by the department of agriculture to enforce the act.

The practice of examining accounts, the traders contended, was an "unwarranted invasion of their rights" and such examination was "arbitrary, capricious and without evidence."

Judge Wilkerson ruled the secretary's action was "reasonable exercise of the powers conferred by the grain futures act" and found that "the secretary has not transgressed the limits of what is necessary to intelligent performance of his broad duties."

RECALLS SCENES AT THE FORD THEATER

Huron, S. D., Feb. 12.—(AP)—On the anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's birth, an 81 year old Huron woman told the theater at that time. "I was in Washington the night of April 14, 1865, when the president was assassinated."

She is Mrs. Nelson Armstrong and she believes she is the only surviving member of the troupe that was playing at the theater at that time. Mrs. Armstrong did not see the actual shooting as she was busy behind the scenes, but attracted by the turmoil she rushed forward to hear John Wilkes Booth cry "Sic Semper Tyrannis" and see him flee from the stage, she said.

NATIONS AGREE ON REPARATIONS MEET

Geneva, Feb. 12.—(AP)—The Havas News Agency reported today that France and Great Britain had agreed on a meeting of the powers in June for the purpose of seeking a lasting solution of the reparations problem.

The plan was agreed to, the Havas correspondent said, by Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, and Andre Tardieu, French minister of war and chairman of the French delegation to the disarmament conference. Other interested powers concurred in the decision, the correspondent reported.

An official communique, it was said, would be published tomorrow in Paris and London.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear wife, mother and grandmother, Mrs. Edward V. Smith who passed away Jan. 10, 1932.

Peaceful be thy rest dear mother as you wait our coming there. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. You shall never from our memory fade.

But our thoughts shall always linger. Round the grave where Thou art laid.

Our precious mother now is gone. Her loving heart is stilled. A place is vacant in her home. Which never can be filled.

CHILD DIES

DeKalb, Ill., Feb. 12.—(AP)—Three-year-old Martin Paul Bolon died in St. Mary's hospital today of pneumonia, which he contracted after an operation to remove a peanut which had been lodged in his throat.

The child was progressing satisfactorily until pneumonia developed.

Thomas J. Ryan of Franklin was among the out of town callers in this city Friday.

ALL AVAILABLE MEN CALLED TO CHINESE ARMY

Shanghai, Feb. 13.—(Saturday)—(AP)—The voices of heavy guns thundered through Shanghai at 8:01 a. m. today, putting an end to a night of unfamiliar quiet, and a few moments later a squad of six Japanese airplanes rained down clusters of bombs on the Chinese positions in the ruins of Chapel.

It was a foggy, misty morning. When the bombardment started visibility was so poor it was impossible to tell where the big guns were being fired. For a brief period all Shanghai, even to the business district, was shaken by the heaviest cannonading of the entire engagement.

When the planes appeared it was somewhat clearer of Chapel. For an hour or so they could be seen circling over the area of devastation, searching out their objectives and, as they picked them up, dropping their loads of destruction and death.

About 9:30 a. m. the bombers wheeled to the north toward the Woosung forts. Clouds of fog and smoke hung over the Whangpoo river and into these clouds the planes disappeared, leaving Chapel, for a time at least, in quiet.

These Japanese airplanes had got in their work as the Chinese waited impatiently for four squadrons of planes coming up from Canton to assist new units of infantry that were being flown into the line in preparation for the impending Japanese push on Woosung and Chapel.

Before the guns and air bombers got into action this morning there had been several hours of inactivity by both the Chinese and Japanese—an interval of rest after a flurry of firing which started at midnight.

A visit to the Japanese positions along the southern and eastern borders of Chapel this morning revealed that the troops were ready for any emergency.

So far as they were concerned yesterday's truce of mercy was a thing of the past, and there was no further talk of armistice.

A visit to the Chapel battlefield from sporadic rifle fire and machine gun fire could be heard. From positions that had remained virtually unchanged since a few hours after the hostilities began, both Japanese and Chinese riflemen and machine gunners tried to pick off whatever members of the enemy force raised his head above the sandbags.

Meanwhile things were going on at Woosung. Japanese naval headquarters announced that when the fog curtain lifted over the mouth of the Whangpoo and along the Yangtze River, the Japanese artillery and machine gunners ashore and on ships offshore resumed firing. Both the village of Woosung and the forts were targets for their new activity.

Use American Flag
Shanghai, Feb. 13.—(Saturday)—(AP)—Chinese military authorities declared today a group of Chinese soldiers bearing an American flag crossed Woosung creek in a small boat Friday morning and attacked the Japanese positions.

The Chinese were repulsed, these authorities said, although the Japanese withheld their fire when they were confused by the display of the United States flag.

Lincoln Sidelights

(By the Associated Press)

Gov. Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania says Abraham Lincoln and his platform of human rights wouldn't get to first base with the controlling powers of the Republican convention in Chicago if he were to run for president this year. Speaking on the eve of a huge celebration of Lincoln's birth, he told an audience at Springfield, Ill., last night that today's festivities were "an empty tribute, a useless gesture if we lose sight of all he worked for and fought for and gave his life for."

The famous Levi Lincoln family of Massachusetts with two governors, sons of an attorney general of the United States, were descendants of Samuel Lincoln, Abraham Lincoln's own first American progenitor, according to Dr. Louis A. Warren, director of the Lincoln Historical Foundation. Thomas Lincoln, father of Abraham, was the recipient of minor political favors in Kentucky.

The death of Vachel Lindsay, fervent admirer of the Civil War president, in 1931, was widely mourned. Lindsay was an admitted admirer of Abraham Lincoln, and long a deep student of Lincoln's life. The poet was buried not far from the tomb of the 16th president.

CANDIDATE FOR SENATE

Aurora, Ill., Feb. 12.—(AP)—Arnold Benson, editor and publisher of the Beloit, Ill., Herald, today took out petitions for the Republican nomination for state senator from the 14th (Aurora) district.

He will oppose State Senator Harold Kessinger. Dr. C. L. Daniels of Aurora also has announced his candidacy for the nomination. Senator Kessinger has held the office for 16 years.

ARREST SUSPECT

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 12.—(AP)—Arthur Kreger, 19, was arrested today and charged with driving the car that struck and killed 12 years old Leonard Swan yesterday. Officer Lloyd Wallace arrested him on a "hunch," having picked him up for speeding last June, and he said Kreger confessed he was the hit and run driver.

GUEST OF MRS. BUKER

Miss Harriet Watson, who has been doing missionary work in the Jacksonville M. E. district, is the guest of Mrs. C. F. Buker, while in this city. She will leave Saturday for Bloomington, where she will spend the coming week in similar work in that district.

HOMER D. McLAREN IN LEGISLATIVE RACE

Attorney Homer D. McLaren of Springfield was a guest at the Douglas Day dinner here Thursday, and announced among friends that he is in the race for representative in the general assembly from this district.

Mr. McLaren's name will appear on the Democratic primary ballot. He was born in Fulton county in 1867, and served as a school superintendent in Illinois for eight years. He was admitted to the Illinois bar in 1920, and now is a member of the law firm of Stone, McLaren & Webb in Springfield. For four years he has been an instructor in the Lincoln College of Law.

Mr. McLaren stands for reduction in real estate taxes, and is very much opposed to the state banking laws as they stand at present.

RECOVER AUTOMOBILE
STOLEN IN JANUARY
A Ford coupe belonging to Dr. D. E. Haworth of Beardstown, which was stolen there several weeks ago, has been found abandoned in Finley, Ohio. Ownership of the coupe was traced through the license and engine numbers.
A medical case belonging to Dr. Haworth was found at the side of the hard road a few miles north of Jacksonville the day after the automobile was stolen. The thieves are believed to have passed through here the same night of the robbery.

SPOT HOGS ARE A DIME LOWER

Chicago, Feb. 12.—(P)—The upward trend of hog values slowed today. Sellers tried to retain control of the market at the outset by boldly demanding 5-10 cent higher prices, but later trading was mostly steady, with spots a dime lower. Packers are opposing any advance in prices, hoping to fill coolers with low priced pork. Cattle were about steady. Little interest was evinced in the light run which, as usual, lacked variety and was comprised chiefly of plain quality stuff. Sheep and lambs were steady to strong after a comparatively slow start. Shipper demand was not aggressive and packers had enough on direct billing, 2,400 lambs, for plants to work on while buyers deliberated. Interest in feeder lambs has revived, country buyers taking them at around $5.00.

WINCHESTER H. S. FARM PRODUCTS JUDGES WIN MEE

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Rodgers entertained last evening at their home, 332 South Diamond street for officers and nurses of Passavant Memorial Hospital.

The Valentine motif was carried in the decorations and favors. Four tables of bridge were at play during the evening, after which a refreshment course was served.

Among the guests present were David W. Reid, dean of the Nursing Training School, and Mrs. Reid.
